Press Agitation Is Bearing Fruit and Premier Will Be Compelled to Answer Quicker

MUST REDUCE EXPENDITURE

Estimated Expenditure 147 Million Pounds Instead of 230 Millions As Carried in Budget

By The Associated Press
LONDON, Oct. 27.—Lloyd George's defeat in the house of commons and the announcement of the cabinet's decision to reduce the estimated deficit for the year ending 1920-21 from 230 million pounds to 147 million pounds, have caused a revolution in the government's financial policy. The cabinet has decided to reduce the deficit by 83 million pounds, a move which will require a radical reorganization of the government's financial policy.

The cabinet's decision is a direct result of the pressure exerted by the opposition in the house of commons. The opposition has been successful in forcing the government to reduce its expenditure, and the cabinet has decided to do so. ## CORSETS OBSOLETE IN PARIS FASHIONS

Although Body Is Given Greater Freedom, Stubbler London Reverts to Follow French Lead

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Paris was the fashion center of the world, but the English woman refuses to be led. The example of the Paris smart set in discarding corsets is not being followed here. A few years ago athletic women discarded corsets, says a Bond street corseteer, "though smart women have always been well corseted. Now women find that corsets do not help which have replaced the long, stiff corsets, are both comfortable and hygienic."

There are far fewer uncorseted women today than was the case five years ago. The discussion reveals many feminine follies. The stiff corset is worn nowadays by working women who, while sale corset manufacturers declare, a farmer's daughter and a charwoman both engaged in work requiring great physical exertion will buy the stiffest and tightest corsets.

The Wishing Plane

When Jack and Jane had finished their breakfast of milk and milk the little old woman said:

"Now see here, I could keep you flying in that bedroom with the barred window all the time, but I'm not going to let you fly. I'm going to let you fly in the yard back of the house. If you can't climb over it, you can't fly. If you can't climb over it, you can't fly. If you can't climb over it, you can't fly."
